Localization is of particular importance to meet the principle of “leaving no one behind” that both the New Urban Agenda and the Agenda 2030 are built on. Their effective implementation depends on the local ownership and involvement of various stakeholders at local level.

The side event will present national and local experiences, financing for development approach and the toolbox for localizing the SDGs.